A Zoom opportunity to see works by women artists at the Getty Museum, Los Angeles

Wednesday 7th December 2022 at 15.30 pm

We were lucky enough in April to have had an excellent Zoom tour of the works recovered by the Monuments Men and on display at the Getty Museum. We were taken on our tour by our wonderful guide, Lee Rubinstein. Lee has very kindly offered to do another tour for TASHH, again by Zoom and again involving her getting up before 8 am to fit in with the time the difference between Los Angeles and London. We will again be travelling to Los Angeles by Zoom to be guided by Lee around the collection of works by women artists

While the Getty isn't particularly known for its female artists, a deeper look has yielded roughly 25 surprises including painters, sculptors and photographers. Some of the names are familiar such as Artemisia Gentileschi, Elisabeth Vigée Le Brun and Dorothea Lange, but how about Anna Children Atkins or Luisa Roldan? We will take a look at their lives and works in the Getty Collection.

We are very fortunate that Lee, our charming and knowledgeable guide will again be rising at the crack of dawn to lead us, despite the fact she is now busier than ever as the National Director of Development for the National Docent Symposium Council.

This is an opportunity to see some wonderful works concentrating on works by women artists, some of whom will probably be new to TASHH members

The tour is at 3.30 pm on Wednesday 7th December 2022 and will last approximately one and a quarter hours.

The cost of the visit is £10.00 per person £15.00 for non-members
