

The President's Lecture

Thursday 18th August 2022 at 10.45 am

At Lauderdale House, Waterlow Park Highgate Hill N6 5HG

Long before Karl Marx was buried in Highgate cemetery and the Russian Trade Delegation moved into Highgate West Hill, the village and its environs have been a magnet for generations of Russians. In this talk Julius Bryant, President of TASHH, Keeper Emeritus of the V&A and a past Curator of Kenwood, will introduce the dashing Grand Duke Michael Mikhailovitch, first cousin of Tsar Nicholas II, direct descendant of Catherine the Great and his glamorous wife Countess Sophie, who entertained high society and raised their two teenage daughters and son at Kenwood between 1910 and 1917

We are delighted that our President Julius Bryant, is giving the Presidential Lecture this year and will tell us about Grand Duke Mikhail Mikhailivitch and his time at Kenwood House. We are only offering this talk live at Lauderdale House as it will be the first time our President has had the opportunity to speak to us live for a considerable period of time. This lecture will be in person only and not on Zoom. Now that COVID is a memory, we hope that as many of you as possible will attend to show our appreciation for the support our President has given us over the years. It promises to be a fascinating talk
