

Wednesday 21st June at 10.45 am

TASSH has been fortunate in securing the services of Alexandra Epps who will be taking us for a fascinating stroll in the square mile of the City of London to explore the beautiful stained glass to be found within some of the historic churches of Sir Christopher Wren. We will discover unique stained glass stories of people, time and place and above all radiant, visual beauty. This is a wonderful experience, and you will certainly enjoy this tour as it is something unique. You will find it well worthwhile, and Alexandra has suggested you should bring binoculars if you have them

Alexandra is an official Guide and Lecturer at Tate Modern, Tate Britain and Guildhall Art Gallery. She is a qualified Guide to the City of London, offering lectures and walks about many aspects of the arts for societies, corporations, and private individuals. She is a Member of the City of London Guide Lecturers Association and co-author of the book Lord Mayor's Portraits 1983-2014 (2015).

Alexandra's background is in design, having practised as a graphic designer and running her own design consultancy for many years. She is a graduate of the Central Saint Martins School of Art and the London College of Printing.

The cost of the visit is £32.00 (£36.00 non members) per person.

We will meet outside the Guildhall Art Gallery in Guildhall Yard EC2V 5AE at 10.30 for a prompt 10.45 start
