

Highlights of the Victoria & Albert Museum led by Julius Bryant

Wednesday 22nd November at 11 am

Our President, Julius Bryant, has enjoyed a glittering career at the Victoria & Albert Museum and on his retirement last year was appointed Keeper Emeritus of the Museum. Julius has kindly agreed to lead a tour of his favourite great spaces at the Museum, and the forgotten corners that are often overlooked. This tour will be a taster for the next President's Lecture when Julius will talk about some of his favourite objects in the Collection. Please note that the route will include some stairs.

We at TASHH appreciate the contribution Julius makes, and are very grateful to him for the opportunity to explore the V&A with someone so closely connected with it; he helped shape the Museum as it is today and knows and loves it. I am sure this will be a fascinating visit, so book early.

There are many cafes in the Museum and locally, where we could meet for coffee/lunch afterwards.

The cost of the visit is £20 (£25 non-members) per person.

We will meet outside the main entrance to the Museum in Cromwell Road SW7 2RL at 10.50 am
The nearest station is South Kensington. Go down the tunnel pointing to the V&A, leave the exit and follow the map with directions below
