

Backstage Tour of The Royal Opera House
Bow Street - WC2 E 9DD
Wednesday 3rd July at 11.15 am.

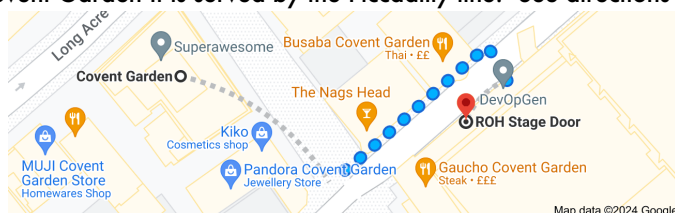

We are offering you a unique chance to see behind the scenes at the Royal Opera House Covent Garden in the company of an expert guide and will gain unique insight into the many secrets and spaces of the Royal Opera House. We will have a chance to see the areas that are normally off-limits to the public, including rehearsal studios, costumes and production workshops and will be able to delve deep into the history of the Royal Opera House including how this came to be the third theatre on the same site. We will have the chance to witness first-hand the inner workings of one of the world's most renowned theatres. The ballet school will be shut but we may be given a rare opportunity to see the studio and maybe even take a photograph. It should be a fascinating visit. Book early to avoid disappointment as there are only 20 places.

We will offer lunch at the Piazza Restaurant high in the roof of the Royal Opera House. There is a two-course meal for £24 excluding drinks and VAT. Please confirm if you want to come as the table needs to be booked.

The cost of the visit is £25.00 (£30.00 non-members) per person. We meet outside the Ground Floor Cloakroom at 11.10 am

The nearest station is Covent Garden It is served by the Piccadilly line. See directions
