

Tour of the Wallace Collection

Tuesday 25th October 2022 at 11 am

Many of us will have visited the Wallace Collection. However, a tour with a knowledgeable guide will throw a different perspective on this much-loved institution and greatly extend your knowledge and understanding of the many wonderful exhibits, including art, porcelain and important pieces of furniture.

We have arranged a private guided tour of the collection, which is housed in Hertford House in Manchester Square, the former townhouse of the Seymour family, Marquesses of Hertford. It is named after Sir Richard Wallace, who built the extensive collection, along with the Marquesses of Hertford, in the 18th and 19th centuries.

There is a nice café located on the ground floor and, if there is enough demand, we will try and book seats in the café. We need to know if you want to come as soon as possible so that we can try and reserve tables. No promises, though it may not be possible, and we will have to take pot luck.

The cost of the visit is £15 per person. (£22.50 for non-members)

We will meet outside Hertford House, Manchester Square, London W1U 3BN, at 10.45 am on 25th October 2022. The nearest stations are Baker Street and Bond Street and the Wallace Collection is served by a number of buses.
